

Help Spread Holiday Cheer in Fairmount Park!

Philadelphia Parks & Recreation and the Fairmount Park Conservancy are actively seeking volunteers to serve in five Fairmount Park historic house museums in December.

"Holiday Hosts" will assist with the Christmas Open House and other holiday events at Cedar Grove, Laurel Hill, Lemon Hill, Strawberry Mansion and Woodford.

Holiday Hosts will:

- Learn more about Fairmount Park's historic house museums
- Discover Philadelphia holiday traditions and winter pastimes
- Share these stories with the public
- Foster a festive and welcoming experience for guests

Previous knowledge of the Fairmount Park houses or tour guide experience is not necessary.

All interested volunteers should attend a short training session to learn more about the historic houses and the details of this year's holiday experience.

Monday, November 6 – 10:00am to 11:30am

OR

Wednesday, November 8 – 6:00pm to 7:30pm

Sessions will be held at the Philadelphia Museum of Art in the South Terrace Conference Room A level. Enter the Museum from the West Entrance. Complimentary parking in the Museum garage will be provided.

For more information, please email

parkcharmsvolunteers@gmail.com